

Apply for the Cambridge City Manager search Initial Screening Committee

As part of the next phase of our process, the City Manager search team is seeking volunteers to be part of the Initial Screening Committee. The Initial Screening Committee will be made up of Cambridge residents and stakeholders from a variety of community and professional backgrounds. Our team is committed to having a broad representation of the community participating on this committee.

If you or someone you know would be a good fit for the committee please apply OR share this update and link within your networks.

Participants must be available in person Tuesday May 3rd, Thursday May 12th and Friday May 13th from 9:00 - 5:00 p.m. Financial assistance (small stipend), translation, and interview skills training will be available for participants who request it.
