TEXT OF ORDERS

O-1 June 21, 2010

COUNCILLOR KELLEY

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council has frequently expressed its concerns that sub-groups of the US population are not treated fairly and are subject to unequal enforcement or implementation of various laws and policies; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge’s housing policy has a resident preference for the lottery system; and

WHEREAS: This resident preference creates unequal access to Cambridge’s affordable housing resources; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to work with relevant departments to change Cambridge’s housing lottery system to eliminate the residence preference.

O-2 June 21, 2010

VICE MAYOR DAVIS

COUNCILLOR CHEUNG

COUNCILLOR DECKER

MAYOR MAHER

COUNCILLOR REEVES

COUNCILLOR SEIDEL

COUNCILLOR SIMMONS

COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

ORDERED: That the City Council meeting of June 28, 2010 be cancelled.

O-3 June 21, 2010

VICE MAYOR DAVIS

MAYOR MAHER

COUNCILLOR SIMMONS

WHEREAS: The Community Development Department is completing a report, “Housing Options for Older Cantabrigians”; now therefore be it

WHEREAS: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to organize a forum forecasting future housing needs for older Cantabrigians that incorporates a panel of housing experts; and be it further

ORDERED: That the forum be scheduled for the fall of 2010; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council on this matter at the summer meeting.

O-4 June 21, 2010

MAYOR MAHER

WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the City Council that large delivery trucks have once again been knocking down wires on Lexington Avenue between Huron Avenue and Fresh Pond Parkway and interrupting electric, telephone and cable service to the neighborhood; and

WHEREAS: The most recent incident occurred on Mon, June 14, 2010; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the above-mentioned utility companies and the automotive dealership at 275 Fresh Pond Parkway and report back to the City Council on this issue.

O-5 June 21, 2010

COUNCILLOR DECKER

MAYOR MAHER

WHEREAS: This City Council is aware that the city issued permits for work at a site on Third Street in the year 1998. Organized labor along with members of the City Council strongly supported the permitting because of a commitment by the owner to meet community standards one hundred percent including paying a prevailing wage; and

WHEREAS: This property has changed ownership and with the transfer of the property itself the permitting has also transferred; and

WHEREAS: It has come as a surprise that even though there was a transfer of the permitting to the new owner there is no commitment from him to maintain community standards at this property; and

WHEREAS: While the new owner Mr. Alex Twining of Twining Properties does not dispute that the previous owner made the commitment to a one hundred percent community standard work site, he has failed to make the same commitment; now therefore be it

WHEREAS: That this City Council go on record encouraging Mr. Alex Twining to honor the agreement made by the previous owner of this property to have a one hundred percent community standard work site which now allows him to develop property that has received permitting relief from the City of Cambridge; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Mr. Alex Twining on behalf of the entire City Council with a request that Mr. Twining communicate to the City Council with respect to this matter.

O-6 June 21, 2010
COUNCILLOR SEIDEL

WHEREAS: On Wed, June 16 a celebration was held for the newly renovated Clement G. Morgan Park and Anthony Paolillo Tot Lot; and

WHEREAS: The Area IV neighborhood residents have spaces to play in and enjoy with these two beautiful City parks; and

WHEREAS: Citizens have already expressed a willingness and dedication to maintaining these outdoor spaces for all to enjoy, keeping them free of litter and vandalism; and

WHEREAS: Maintenance of these parks by residents also requires education and outreach to all who use the parks; and

WHEREAS: Area IV neighbors and staff at the Community Art Center have discussed ways that children who take classes at the Art Center could make signs to post in the park reminding all to take care of the park, thus encouraging awareness and respect for this space as well as a sense of ownership by the community; therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to have staff from the Community Development and Public Works departments work with interested Area IV residents and staff of the Community Art Center on the feasibility of this signage project; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council with updates on the progress.

O-7 June 21, 2010
COUNCILLOR SEIDEL

WHEREAS: The next annual national planning conference of the American Planning Association (APA) is taking place in Boston Apr 9-12, 2011; and

WHEREAS: The APA is an organization whose mission is to promote “a nation of vital communities, fully accessible to all people,” and which aims to fulfill that mission through its advocacy and educational efforts for good planning at national, state and local levels; and

WHEREAS: Session proposals are now being accepted for next April’s APA conference, with a deadline for submissions in July 2010; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge, through its Community Development Department, has been recognized for its planning efforts locally and nationally, having garnered awards in recent years including being named the “Best Walking City in America” from Prevention Magazine, being the recipient of an Environmental Merit Award from the New England office the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and being named by the EPA as one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters; therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to explore ways that the City of Cambridge can showcase its work and participate in events related to the 2011 APA conference; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council on this matter.

O-8 June 21, 2010
COUNCILLOR CHEUNG

WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the Cambridge City Council that frequent traffic jams have been reported at the intersection of Putnam Avenue and River Street; and
WHEREAS: Drivers going down River Street block the intersection, thus blocking cars from being able to move forward on Putnam Avenue; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the appropriate department heads and report back to the City Council with a course of action on how best to rectify this problem.

O-9 June 21, 2010
COUNCILLOR CHEUNG

WHEREAS: Empty storefronts detract from the vitality and ambiance of the community; and

WHEREAS: Vacant retail spaces are often targets of vandalism, littering and squatting; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the appropriate department heads and report back to the Economic Development, Training and Employment Committee with a report on all current “empty storefronts,” how long they have remained vacant and the current landlords in anticipation of an Economic Development, Training and Employment hearing tentatively scheduled for September on said issue.

O-10 June 21, 2010
COUNCILLOR CHEUNG

WHEREAS: In September 2009, The Daily Beast released the findings of a report that analyzed the crime reports of the last two years of almost 9,000 schools, weighing different crimes against each other, and factoring in incidents both on campus and nearby. <http://bit.ly/SafeColleges> Local FBI data was also used to make the statistics as up-to-date as possible; and

WHEREAS: This report concluded that Harvard ranked 20th, and MIT 3rd in crime rankings; and

WHEREAS: Harvard reported more on-campus crime than any other university on this list. The majority of these crimes were burglaries, and Harvard was also near the top for crimes in nearby public places (mostly robberies, assaults, and vehicular thefts.) Harvard was also the highest among the top 25 in terms of rapes listed; and

WHEREAS: MIT had one of the highest incidents of burglary in the country in 2007. In February 2009, two people were robbed in broad daylight near campus, one victim held “in a choke hold” and then punched, according the MIT Tech; and

WHEREAS: This stands in stark contrast to the significantly better than average results the Cambridge Police Department has achieved in comparison to comparable cities as reported in the 2009 Annual Crime Report; and

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and is hereby requested to confer with the appropriate department heads and report back to the University Relations Committee with all relevant city policies in regards to campus safety and a course of action on how best to address the statistics presented in the Daily Beast report in time for a University Relations Committee hearing tentatively planned for November.

O-11 June 21, 2010

COUNCILLOR CHEUNG

WHEREAS: Bicycling is an important aspect of Cambridge's transportation programs; and

WHEREAS: Between 2002 and 2008, the number of people bicycling in Cambridge doubled; and

WHEREAS: In 2009, a travel survey conducted in the Cambridgeport Neighborhood through the CitySmart program demonstrated that 9% of residents in that neighborhood commute to work by bike and that 65% of households own at least one bicycle and, on average, own 2.6 bicycles; and

WHEREAS: As a result of increased bike use, the bike racks around the city are overflowing, specifically near T stations, leaving many bike owners at a loss on where to "park" their bikes. As a visible result of demand exceeding supply, bikes can be seen at Central Square locked to posts, signs, fencing, and other decorative objects, sometimes creating pedestrian and safety hazards; and

WHEREAS: Conversely, if a secured, monitored storage facility for bikes near T stations was provided by the city, it would provide commuters with a safe and convenient location for cyclers to park their bike for the entire day as part of their commute to work; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and is hereby requested to identify areas in need of additional bike racks, specifically in travel hubs such as Central Square and Porter Square and install additional bike racks; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and is hereby requested to confer with the appropriate department heads and report back to the City Council on the feasibility of installing long term "bike sheds" or "bike lockers" for storage of commuter bikes near metro stations.
