TEXT OF ORDERS

O-1 June 25, 2018

COUNCILLOR KELLEY

MAYOR MCGOVERN

COUNCILLOR ZONDERVAN

WHEREAS: Flat roofs and associated central drains on residential three-story homes can lead to more storm water entering Cambridge’s sanitary sewer; and

WHEREAS: These flat roofs may be on homes that have been insulated or otherwise improved for energy efficiency with the result that snow and/or ice during the winter may build up amounts unanticipated by the original building designers; and

WHEREAS: Climate change appears to be bringing more episodes of heavy snow and rainfall during winter months, as experienced during the winter of 2014-2015 and again in 2017-2018, and with clogged drains this results in more buildup of snow, ice, and water on flat roofs than may be safe, especially with an energy-efficient building which helps keep rooftop ice and snow from melting away; and

WHEREAS: Retrofitting flat roofs to allow angled drainage to the side of residential three-story houses would alleviate snow, ice, and water buildup safety concerns and would decrease the amount of storm water going into Cambridge’s sanitary sewer system; and

WHEREAS: The expensive alteration of putting a pitched roof on a flat roof could be offset by the added value of increasing interior space in the existing home and possible improving other options for room use; and

WHEREAS: The extra height and living space created as a result of installing a pitched roof may negatively impact neighbors; and

WHEREAS: The Special Permit process used for other challenging zoning situations may be appropriate in this case; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Council refer to the Ordinance Committee and the Planning Board, for hearing and report, the following attachment with changes to the Cambridge Zoning Ordinance in Article 5.000.

Proposal for converting flat concave roofs to a kind of greenhouse/glass porch

Z.O. 5.55

In an effort to enhance the City’s commitment to mitigating environmental impacts of certain older types of residential buildings, namely so-called “triple-deckers”, while improving the City’s storm-water management, modifications to the applicable dimensional requirements of this Article 5.000, in particular regarding FAR and height limitations, may be authorized under the following circumstances:

Residential buildings with a flat (concave) roof which may have poor upper-level thermal insulation and/or contribute to important heat island effects, or may suffer from the secondary effects of overinsulation, and on which a drain pipe collects water from the roof and combines it with household waste-water, discharging into a single outflow pipe to the municipal sewer line

Provided that the resulting construction will:

- significantly increase the thermal efficiency of the building
- entirely eliminate rain water entry from the concerned roof into the sewer system, and that
- said rain water is harvested on the property at the rate of 1/8 gallon per square foot of roof area, with the remainder dispersed at the ground to follow its natural path without direct encumbrance onto abutting properties, the construction of a partial structure relieved from the applicable FAR and height limit may be permitted within the following limits:

- Additional height not to exceed 10 ft. above the existing roof line of the building
- Footprint to be no closer than 3 feet from either long edge or rear side of the building, no less than 6 feet from front/street-side of building, and
- Additional FAR not to exceed 20% of the existing FAR of the building.

Furthermore, in enhancing alternative energy sources (Article 22), additional positive consideration will be given to projects that improve the:

- installation of solar panels (impractical on residential flat roofs)
- use of passive solar heating, convective cooling, seasonal shading with natural plants,
- using rainwater at the roof level or floors below,
- planting flowering bushes and vegetation attractive to pollinating insects at the roof level, and
- harmonization of the new roof profile with the neighborhood architecture.

WHEREAS: The Spring season during which leaf blowers are allowed under certain circumstances recently ended on June 15, 2018; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the License Commission and the Department of Public Works to report back to the City Council by the July 30, 2018 Special City Council Meeting with an overview of leaf blower enforcement and registrations that occurred during the Spring 2018 season, including the number of registered companies, number of complaints filed, number of hearings held, fines collected, other relevant data, and a comparison to the same statistics from last year's Spring and Fall seasons.

WHEREAS: As part of the City's continued efforts to increase the bicycle lane infrastructure throughout Cambridge, the City shall be erecting new bicycle lanes in the South Massachusetts Avenue area in the near future; and

WHEREAS: While these new bicycle lanes are unquestionably necessary to improve the overall safety of our streets, it has come to the City Council's attention that insufficient notice has gone out to the neighborhoods where these new bicycle lanes shall be established, and there has troublingly been a lack of serious engagement with the senior residents that live in this area; and

WHEREAS: The City has repeatedly stated that the new bicycle lane infrastructure must be established as quickly as possible, but this must be done with as much public engagement as possible, and as of this date, the public engagement necessary to ensure that this process moves forward as responsibly as possible has been woefully short of what is needed; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the Traffic, Parking, and Transportation Department, the Community Development Department, and any other relevant departments to conduct a much more thorough process of community engagement and outreach – particularly in regards to the senior community – prior to the establishment of any new bicycle lanes in the area of South Massachusetts Avenue, and to report back to the City Council on what this engagement has consisted of.

WHEREAS: Recognizing the need to maximize opportunities for increasing residential units in Cambridge, the Cambridge

City Council recently changed its zoning to allow easier creation of accessory dwelling units; and
WHEREAS: The creation of these new units is still not completely allowed in many cases per the City's existing zoning laws and may still require zoning relief to allow construction; now be it therefore ORDERED: That the attached zoning amendment to section 4.22 of the zoning code, with strikeouts and highlighting to identify proposed changes for discussion, be forwarded to the Planning Board and the Ordinance Committee for their review as a zoning solution to the challenges posed by current zoning constraints regarding accessory dwelling units.

4.22.1 In all districts the Board of Zoning Appeal may grant a special permit for alteration or new construction of a single family, ~~or two-family, detached dwelling~~ or accessory structure to provide one accessory apartment if the following conditions are met:

- 1. Only one accessory dwelling unit is allowed on any lot
~~1. The dwelling has not been substantially enlarged since built. The addition in the aggregate of two hundred and fifty (250) square feet or more of gross floor area shall be considered a substantial enlargement.~~
2. Prior to alteration or new construction the principal dwelling contains at least one thousand eight hundred (1,800) square feet of gross floor area.
- ~~3. The lot on which such accessory apartment is located contains at least five thousand (5,000) square feet of lot.~~
4. Such accessory apartment shall not occupy more than nine hundred (900) square feet or thirty-five (35) percent of the gross floor area of the principal dwelling, whichever is less, ~~and shall not be located in a garage.~~
5. The owner(s) of the residence in which the accessory dwelling unit is created must continue to occupy at least one of the dwelling units as their primary residence. Prior to issuance of a building permit, the owner(s) must submit a notarized letter stating that the owner will occupy one of the dwelling units on the premises as the owner's primary residence. Subsequent changes in ownership does not remove the requirement for the owner(s) of the accessory dwelling unit to live in one of the dwelling units as their primary unit.
6. Any existing two-family home may be converted to a single family home with accessory unit by right, without need for a Special Permit.

In granting a special permit the Board may impose such conditions, including ~~requirements for off street parking~~ and limitations on other accessory uses of the premises, as it may deem appropriate to avoid detriment to the neighborhood or to nearby persons or property. The Board of Zoning Appeal shall evaluate each special permit application which involves exterior changes with the appearance of and character of the neighborhood and may require that there be no change or minimal change to any face of a building oriented toward a public way or visible from a public way.

4.22.12 Accessory Structure Apartment. An accessory apartment in an accessory structure on the same lot may be allowed by Special Permit if the following criteria are met:

1. The gross floor area of the apartment does not exceed 1,000 square feet.
2. The Special Permit Granting Authority determines that the exterior appearance of the accessory structure is compatible with the principal dwelling on the same lot and with dwellings and accessory structures on adjoining lots.

WHEREAS: In April 2018, Attorney General Jeff Sessions rolled out a zero-tolerance immigration policy which calls for the criminal prosecution of all unauthorized border-crossings, including asylum seekers; the implementation of this policy has resulted in the rapid rise of family separations at the southern border as vulnerable children are forcibly and brutally torn away from their parents who face criminal prosecution and potential deportation; and

WHEREAS: According to the Department of Homeland Security, immigration authorities have detained nearly 2,000 immigrant children in the past six weeks; after being separated from their parents, the children, many of whom are babies and toddlers, are initially held in cage-like detention facilities whose conditions have been kept secretive; research has shown that separating children from their parents has profound negative health impacts and causes “irreparable harm” with life-long effects; and

WHEREAS: Although President Trump signed an executive order on June 20th ending his administration’s policy of forced family separations, we remain deeply disturbed by the fact that this order allows for the indefinite detainment of parents and children together while parents are criminally prosecuted and continues to uphold the zero-tolerance policy; we are also alarmed by the lack of a clear plan for reuniting the more than 2,000 children who have already been separated from their parents; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Council go on record strongly condemning the Trump administration’s unjust and inhumane practice of separating migrant families at the border, and demanding an immediate end to the zero-tolerance policy and that every effort be made to reunite separated families; and be it further

WHEREAS: By state law, the Cannabis Control Commission (CCC) is required to ensure that people from communities that have been disproportionately harmed by marijuana law enforcement are included in the new legal marijuana industry, and to that end has created two programs, Economic Empowerment Priority Review and the Social Equity Program; and

WHEREAS: Many cities around the country have instituted programs to ensure this new industry enters communities in a sustainable, fair way, and it is important that Cambridge reflects the best and most innovative equity practices and creates an environment where a new industry can flourish that has both small and large participants, and ensures full participation by those people who have been disproportionately harmed by marijuana prohibition and enforcement; and

WHEREAS: The City of Somerville conducted a study on workforce development and the potential for a job linkage fee in 2013, and the report, which included data about Cambridge, concluded that “a jobs linkage fee would be warranted if specialized employment and training services are needed to allow Somerville residents to gain access to these new employment opportunities so that they share in the benefits of new development”; and
